THE RICHEST MAN.

The marriage of Prince Adolphus, of Teck, son of the Duke and Duchess of Teck, cousins of Queen Victoria, and Lady Margaret Grosvenor, daughter of the Duke of Westminster, the richest man in the British empire, and who is said to own about half of the land up-on which London stands, was solemnized on Thursday in the private chap-l attached to Eton Hall, the regal resiattached to Elon Hall, the regal residence of the duke on the outskirts of Chester. The event was shorn of much of the expected pomp and ceremony by the absence of the Queen and Princess and Prince of Wales, the health of the sovereign not permitting her attendance, while the Prince and Princess of Wales have not yet returnations. Princess of Wales have not yet returned from Russia whither they went to participate in the obsequies of the late Czar. The royal fam ly were represented, however, by the Duke and Duchess of York and the Duke of Cambridge. Prince Francis, of Teck, brother of the contract of the page of the pag groom, officiated as best man, and the brides maids were the two half-sisters of the bride, Hon. Beatrice Cavendish and Helen Grosvenor and her four nieces. The bridal costume was a magnificent white corded silk robe, decorated with empire sleeves and elaborately covered with pearl lace. Over it was a bridal veil of lace of the six-The bride wore a coronet of diamonds, the gift of the groom. After the cere-mony the couple departed for Hileshall Hall, the Duke's residence near Newport.

At the clubs some spicy gossip is afloat concerning the conditions surrounding the marriage. The Teck family, as is well known, is almost as poor as the proverbial church mouse, and has been spending more money and has been spending more money than ever in keeping up appearances, since the daughter became the Duchess of York, and hence, in all probability, a future 'King's consort' The Duke's daughter, however, wanted a title, and it is said the Duke was induced to set up a dowry of three quarters of a mil-lion of dollars, to be under the exclusive control of the bride, and to allow the young couple $40,000 a year for their joint use. It is also understood that the Queen has decreed to give them an allowance of $10,000 annually, while the father of the groom has insured his life in their favor for a half million dollars. The Prince has been considerable of a young sport in his day, being known to the fast set as "Dolly," but he is said to have sown all of his wild oats and to have become being known to the fast set as a fairly dignified citizen.

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having la grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by L. Stabler & Co.
